

CAN MY APARTMENT BUILDING OR BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT PARTICIPATE IN RECYCLING?

Absolutely! And, for FREE!

Apartment buildings of five or more units, upon the request of the building owner, can be issued containers for service through the Multi-family recycling program.

Businesses can use 100-gallon recycling containers, or utilize larger bins specifically designated for recyclables... such as cardboard, cans and bottles, and all forms of office paper, including junk mail. Recycling service is provided by the City of Glendale free of charge. For your apartment or business and for the environment, the City recycling program is a "win" all the way around.

ELECTRONIC WASTE SERVICES

Individual tenants of multi-family dwellings can get electronic waste picked up at no charge through our bulky item service by calling (818) 548-3916 or go to bulky item collection form on the website. Businesses should refer to the list of certified local electronic recyclers at www.ecycle.org.
